

INVESTMENT EDUCATION · ZAMBIA

GRZ Bonds for Beginners

Learn about government bonds and how to get started

Live online via Zoom · Lusaka / CAT (UTC+2)

US$45 per participant · 3 hours

1 About this workshop

Ready to explore how government bonds may fit into an investment strategy? This practical three-hour workshop introduces GRZ bonds and the process of getting started. Facilitated by Mukonki Mukonkela, a finance expert, the session guides participants through the Central Securities Depository (CSD) account process, purchasing government bonds and considering how bonds may fit into a balanced investment portfolio.

2 What you will learn

- Introduction to GRZ bonds. Learn what bonds are, how they work and their role in an investment portfolio; consider the benefits described in the original event record.
- How to open a CSD account. Receive step-by-step guidance on opening a Central Securities Depository account and purchasing government bonds through it.
- Benefits and portfolio fit. Explore the event description's discussion of government bonds as a long-term investment option and how they may diversify a portfolio.
- Market insights and bond trends. Learn how to assess bond opportunities in Zambia and understand how market trends can affect bond investments.

3 Course outline

1. Bond basics, government securities and portfolio role.
2. The CSD account and the steps described for opening it.
3. Purchasing government bonds through a CSD account.
4. Diversification, long-term objectives and considerations when assessing opportunities.
5. Market trends and information relevant to bond investing in Zambia.

4 Workshop details and fee

The event record describes sessions every Saturday evening, 18:00–21:00 Zambia time (CAT, UTC+2), live online via Zoom. The original event record lists US$45 per participant and a registration deadline on the Wednesday before class. Confirm the current date, fee and availability on the live booking page.

5 Who should attend

- Anyone interested in diversifying investments by adding government bonds to a portfolio.
- First-time investors who want to learn about investing in GRZ bonds.
- Business owners and professionals exploring long-term investment options.
- No prior investment experience is required, according to the original event record.

6 Why attend

The published event description says the workshop aims to help participants understand the CSD account process, gain expert context on government bonds and consider how they may relate to long-term financial goals. It does not promise investment outcomes.

7 Your facilitator

Mukonki Mukonkela, described in the original event record as a seasoned finance expert who guides participants through bond investing and the CSD account process.

8 Delivery, preparation and booking

The workshop is live online via Zoom for three hours. Bring a phone, tablet or computer with a reliable internet connection. Choose a date in the booking form, select a ticket and complete payment online. Check your email for confirmation, your booked date and time in CAT, and your private Zoom joining link. Join five minutes early using your booking name.

9 Frequently asked questions

The original event record does not contain a standalone FAQ section; these quick answers restate its published details.

Do I need prior investment experience? No. The original event record says no prior investment experience is required.

What does CSD mean? Central Securities Depository. The workshop covers the account-opening process described in the event record.

When is the registration deadline? The original description states Wednesday before the Saturday class. Check the live page for the selected session's current availability.

What fee and format are listed? The original record lists US$45 per participant for a three-hour live Zoom workshop. Confirm the current fee and date before paying.

How do I receive the joining link? The event description says the confirmation email includes the booked date, time in CAT and private Zoom joining link; join five minutes early.

10 Current booking page and terms

These workshops recur, and dates, fees and availability can change. Use the live booking page as the source of current details. Review the cancellation, refund and booking terms presented before payment; confirm the selected workshop date and price before completing checkout. Open the live event page for current dates, fees and availability.

11 Contact Insight Partners Africa

Plot No. 6054 Sibweni Road, Northmead, Lusaka, Zambia. \ Office: +260 211 297 050 \ WhatsApp: +260 977 445 604 \ Email: info@insightpartnersafrica.com \ Website: insightpartnersafrica.com